

A Different Kind of Path. A Different Kind of Formation. A Different Kind of Servant.

A double major in Theology helps to form leaders who are called to promoting justice and advocacy

Flexible Second Major

(*Course required for MCC)

- THEO 1001*
 - CORE 4929*
 - THEO 4997 Capstone
 - 7 Electives
- (2 THEO Electives can count for DISCO Tier*)

Spring 2021 Electives

- THEO 2400 Christian Discipleship
- THEO 3010 Hebrew Scriptures: The Prophets
- THEO 3420 Bridging the Racial Divide
- THEO 3250 Contemplation and Justice in a Violent World
- THEO 3600 Theology Engaging Culture
- THEO 3470 Women and Theology Across Cultures
- THEO 4400 Christian Faith and Justice

Personal and Professional Difference

- Small classes and personal attention from faculty.
- Faculty know you and write letters that reflect who you are
- Study art of discernment. Develop empathy and sensitivity to other beliefs and traditions
- Think globally about the whole person: body and spirit
- Sharpen analytical abilities and writing skills
- Cultivate spiritual practices to encourage resilience and resist burnout

Double-Major Theology and Social Welfare and Justice

Majors get priority registration.
Contact Dr. Kelly to learn more :
conor.kelly@marquette.edu